

QUICK HOLIDAY GAMES FOR THE OFFICE

Simple Activities That Require Minimal Prep

Perfect for lunch-and-learns, team meetings, or an impromptu break on a long December workday. All activities take 10-20 minutes and require minimal supplies.

Game # 1: Holiday Trivia Challenge

Time: 20 minutes | Supplies: None (just questions!)

How to Play:

- Divide your team into small groups of 3-5 people
- Read trivia questions aloud
- Teams write down answers
- Award points for correct answers; team with most points wins

Trivia Questions:

- In what year did "A Christmas Story" premiere? (1983)
- What holiday is celebrated for eight nights? (Hanukkah)
- In "Home Alone," where is the McCallister family traveling when they leave Kevin behind? (Paris)
- What is the best-selling holiday song of all time? ("White Christmas" by Bing Crosby)

 Try your hand with AI to generate more questions and answers...be sure to do a QA check on those answers!

Game #2: Holiday Song Scramble

Time: 15 minutes | Supplies: Prepared word scrambles

How to Play:

- Give teams scrambled holiday song titles
- First team to unscramble all songs wins

Word Scrambles:

- LEGNJI SLEBL = Jingle Bells
- TILSNE THGIN = Silent Night
- TEIWH SHMCATRIS = White Christmas
- HULDOPR HET DRE SODEN REERDNIE = Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer
- TEL TI NOWS = Let It Snow
- CEDK HET LHLAS = Deck the Halls
- OYJ OT EHT LOWRD = Joy to the World

Game #3: Two-Minute Doodle Challenge

Time: 10 minutes total | Supplies: Paper and pens

How to Play:

- Call out a holiday item (snowman, Christmas tree, menorah, gift, reindeer, etc.)
  - Give everyone exactly 2 minutes to draw it
  - No artistic skill required...this is about having fun!
  - Vote on categories: Most Creative, Funniest, Most Realistic
  - Share the best drawings with the team
- 